

The European Network of Young Gynaecological Oncologists (ENYGO) is a network for juniors and trainees in gynaecological oncology and its related subspecialties. ENYGO was created in 2008 and is supported in its activities by the European Society of Gynaecological Oncology (ESGO).

- ⊕ ENYGO is a progressive European network representing the needs and aspirations of all trainees involved in the study, prevention and treatment of gynaecological cancer.
- ⊕ ENYGO organizes educational workshops, cadaveric workshops and masterclasses in oncogynaecology.
- ⊕ ENYGO serves as a platform for collaborative studies.
- ⊕ ENYGO creates social contacts and activities during workshops and ESGO meetings.
- ⊕ ENYGO has 600+ members from 40 countries across Europe. Each country has a national representative.

Members are:

- ⊕ Reduced-fee members of ESGO (40 EUR)
- ⊕ Younger than 40 or currently enrolled in oncogynaecological training

ENYGO ACTIVITIES 2015 – 2016

ENYGO runs many activities to aid and improve gynaecological training.

FUTURE EDUCATIONAL WORKSHOPS:

12/2015 | Laparoscopic cadaveric workshop, Madrid, Spain

02/2016 | Teach-the-teacher and gestational trophoblastic disease workshop, Copenhagen, Denmark

04/2016 | 3rd Medical writing workshop, Minsk, Belarus

06/2016 | 2nd Masterclass in oncogynaecology, Lund, Sweden

09/2016 | Laparoscopic workshop, Tbilisi, Georgia

12/2016 | Workshop on fertility sparing in gynaecological oncology, Madrid, Spain

eLOG BOOK

An electronic logbook for trainees in gynaecological oncology throughout Europe will be available soon! Visualize your progress, compare it to other trainees and get feedback from your tutor.

LITERATURE UPDATE

A summary of newly published literature within oncogynaecology will soon be available every six months via our Facebook page.

SCIENTIFIC SURVEYS

Through online surveys, using ENYGO as a networking platform, we will work to facilitate international projects for our members.

We strive for continuous improvement of ENYGO, so let us know your ideas and get involved!

For more information, see our www.esgo.org/enygo homepage or contact us at enygoeeg@gmail.com.