Motivational Statement (250 words)

I am enthusiastic about the work of ESGO and ENYGO and I have worked to progress engagement with the Society and its aims amongst Irish trainees. I am currently a writer on ENYGO's LiFE report panel and I have a keen awareness of the importance of international collaboration to achieve the best surgical and oncological outcomes for our patients. If elected as national representative I would look forward to working with my colleagues across Europe in ENYGO and with Irish trainees who have an interest in gynaecological oncology.
