First name:	Mª DE LOS REYES
Last name:	OLIVER-PÉREZ
Country:	SPAIN
Hospital:	HOSPITAL UNIVERSITARIO 12 DE OCTUBRE
Department:	GYNECOLOGY ONCOLOGY. OBSTETRICS AND GYNECOLOGY
Current position:	MD, PhD

My name is Mª Reyes Oliver-Pérez, gynaecologist at the Gynaecological Oncology Unit of the Hospital Universitario 12 de Octubre in Madrid, Spain. I am writing to express my interest in becoming the next ENYGO National Representative from Spain. From this position, I could effectively promote ENYGO training activities and contribute to the development of the research network that currently exists in Spain.

I have been dedicated to gynaecological oncology since the beginning of my residency. I acquired specialised training under the mentorship of Dr. Magriñá (Mayo Clinic, Scottsdale, USA) and the supervision of Dr. Maggioni (European Institute of Oncology, Milan, Italy). I subsequently obtained my PhD in Endometrial Cancer Research. Once completing my specialisation, I joined the Gynaecological Oncology Unit and the Research Institute of the Hospital Universitario 12 de Octubre, national and international reference care centre. I am also member of the LIFE project for ENYGO.

All this experience has made me firmly believe in gynaecological oncology as a subspecialty: incessant study, surgical training, research and teaching are indispensable to fulfil the commitment to our patients. In this way, international collaboration plays a key role, promoting scientific and social interaction, allowing sharing knowledge, experience and views. This is why I consider both ESGO and ENYGO Network of capital importance for the consolidation of young gynaecological oncologists, and I would be delighted to be part of it and lead it for my country.

Representing my young gynaecological oncologists peers would allow me to continue the excellent work carried out by my predecessors and to promote international workshop programs, increasing strategic partnership and collaboration between Spain and the rest of Europe.
